Senior Auditions

OMTA East Site North Senior Auditions were held at Tyrrell Hall on the campus of the University of Tulsa on Saturday, February 20th. There were 47 entries with 15 teachers participating.

Judges for the event were Dr. Barbara Fast, OU (piano, harp) ; Dr. Stuart Deaver, TU (piano); and Dr. Kim Childs, TU (voice).

I would like to extend special thanks to Karen Harrington, Barbi Cottingham, Gloria Johnson, Lorelei Barton, and DeAnna Calhoun for their willingness to work during the audition.

Finalists will audition at the State Senior Auditions on May 15th at Oklahoma City University. The finalists selected and their teachers are listed on this page.

State Conference, June 3-5

I hope you are making plans to attend the 2010 OMTA Conference which will be held in Ada, Oklahoma this year on June 3-5.

We are looking forward to seeing East Central University's new music building, the Hallie Brown Fine Arts Center, and enjoying some great music and workshops. The conference artist is Bob Weirich. He will present a master class, recital of the Bach Goldberg Variations and a session on teaching Bach keyboard works. Well known teacher, editor, and lecturer, Ingrid Jacobson Clarfield, will be the conference clinician. These two represent just a portion of the sessions that will be presented.

Remember, new OMTA members are entitled to free conference registration. I hope you will all be able to attend!
